☞ Considerable excitement was exhibited at the National theatre, at Washington, over the admission to private boxes of the theatre of four colored persons, who occupied the same during the performance. No adverse demonstration was made. It is the first incident of the kind that has occurred here.

☞ Captain Eyre, who was in command of the British steam packet Bombay, when that vessel ran into and sunk the United States war steamer Oneida, has been sentenced to six months suspension from ... [illegible] however, that his pay continues ... [illegible] is simply an addition ... [illegible] American people.

To The Members of the Southern Press Association.

The annual Convention of the Southern Press Association will be held in the city of Savannah, on Monday, the 25th day of April next. It is to be hoped that all the journals composing the association will be represented. A. R. LAMAR, Presid't Southern Press Association.

Columbus, Ga., March 28, 1870.

THE LIES TOO BUNGLING.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun closes his dispatches of Thursday as follows:

Reported outrages on revenue officers in Georgia are among the topics to-day, but the details are so incomplete and inconsistent that the authorities place little or no reliance in them.

Rough Rice's Reporter.

Atlanta has another attractive sensation in Rough Rice's Reporter—a racy, humorous, unique little journal, devoted to fun and everything else. We have failed to notice its advent before. Rough Rice needed Atlanta to develop his genius. His illustrations are very comical. We welcome the new adventurer.

THE BRUNSWICK AND ALBANY RAILROAD TROUBLES.—The press of Georgia will confer a favor by publishing this statement. The recent troubles were in consequence of a dispute between the friends of the late Superintendent of Construction, Mr. F. A. Babcock and Col. E. Hulbert, the Superintendent of the road, and not because they were not paid, nor because they were paid in almost worthless scrip; and was entirely devoid of political significance, as both Messrs. Babcock and Hulbert are Republicans, and so are the majority of their partizans.—Brunswick Appeal.

☞ The Commercial of Cincinnati, in commenting on the failure to expel Tennessee Butler, is frank enough to add that "the fact is, quite a number of the honorable members were frightened by the developments as to the sale of cadetships, and intensely anxious to put a stop to investigation. It has even been rumored that the committee of investigation was itself in a condition that demanded investigation."

This admission from a Radical newspaper is worthy of note. Even Radicalism itself is getting shamed into a denunciation of the corruption and rottenness of its representatives in Congress.

☞ Reading matter on every page.

The Garbler.

The Radical organ continues its role of misrepresentation and garbling. In our Tuesday's paper we reproduced the following extract, that we found in one of our exchanges as a news item, unaccredited. The extract was not inserted in our editorial column, nor leaded, as editorial matter always is.

The organ quotes it as THE CONSTITUTION'S editorial in its editorial column of garbled Democratic matter, entitled the "Spirit of the Georgia Press," to which we have before alluded as being prepared for Governor Bullock's use. This is the third example of the kind that we have shown against the organ. The previous cases it has never corrected.

THE GEORGIA CASE.—The case of Georgia has been postponed in the Senate for the arrival of reinforcements. By a decided vote, the case of Military Carpet-Bagger Ames has been taken up. He will be admitted—that makes one vote. The Texas Senators will then be brought in, making two more. Bullock relies on his female lobbyists to supply any deficiency that may be lacking. We despair now of the simplest act of justice from the Congress. The Bingham amendment will meet its death at the hands of the carpet-baggers and brazen-faced Delilahs.

The practice is a disgrace to journalism. It is a violation of every canon of fair dealing. It deserves the reprobation of the honest men of the community. It is characteristic of Radicalism that cantingly boasts of its progress and moral ideas.

YERGER'S SURRENDER.—A Jackson correspondent of the Vicksburg Times says that E. M. Yerger rode into town about three o'clock in the morning, escorted by four mounted men, armed with double-barrel guns, and proceeded to the jail, where Yerger himself rang the bell. Before the gate was opened, the Sheriff's officers and police were on the ground, but he notified them that it was a voluntary surrender and no reward would be given. He says his escape was the result of a sudden impulse, after he had retired for the night. He had spent his time of freedom in hunting and fishing, and once, while on a turkey hunt with a friend, encountered four negroes in search of him. In Ames' proclamation describing the fugitive, they had construed "excessive vanity" into "excessive veins," and examined his hands and those of his companion, to see if they corresponded with the description.

SURVEY OF THE BARNWELL RAILROAD.—An engineer corps, under charge of Capt. A. Grant Childs, chief engineer, left the city yesterday afternoon to take up the survey of the route for the Barnwell (S. STATE LETTER.

Freshets and Crops in Gibson.

GIBSON, GA., March 19, 1870.

Editor Constitution: On the 12th instant, the fountains of the great deep seemed to be broken up, and the rain came down, as one remarked, "without measure or weight." The Ogeechee river and all of the creeks in or bordering our county flooded the entire lowlands lying on their banks, carrying off a great deal of fencing and nearly all of the bridges. The farmers have been injured by the freshet, yet they are not disheartened. Ere this much of the fencing has been replaced. Many of the bridges must remain until orders come from the officials to rebuild them.

On the night of the 13th, the wind found its way to the northern regions, and caused our lady friends to cry more fire. From that time until this morning—five days—we have had winter weather. Some mornings the ground would be frozen at least three-fourths of an inch deep. Some of our oat fields are spoiled, and others are badly injured. I can't say that we will have no peaches and plums, but will say that they will be very scarce. The cold is too early to hurt the apples. Our gardens are very backward. The farmers generally are behind. To-day, the weather again looks like spring. The fall in cotton has caused some of our farmers to change their programme. More corn will be planted. Everybody seems to be cheerful. Upon the whole, we are doing very well.

J.

Political.

Gen. McKean, ex-member of Congress from Saratoga, has come to New York city to practice law.

The Oregon Democratic State Convention has nominated J. H. Slater for Congress and L. F. Glover for Governor.

Golladay leaves Washington for Kentucky in a few days, to enter the campaign as a candidate for re-election.

The Kentucky Legislature, after repealing the Louisville Metropolitan Police law, adjourned to meet again January 1, 1871.

In Virginia there are over one hundred and twenty-five judges to be elected by the Legislature, and the candidates are multitudinous.

The bankers of Chicago yesterday adopted a memorial to Congress against the Funding bill. It was maintained that the legislation proposed would promote wide and general disaster.

The Radicals in the Mississippi Legislature have resolved in caucus to re-elect General Ames to the United States Senate in case of his rejection by that body.

The House yesterday, amended the usury laws of the District of Columbia, establishing a rate of six per cent. interest where not otherwise stipulated, and making ten per cent. the maximum rate receivable under written contract.

It is admitted that if the Senate refuse to seat Ames he can at once be legally elected by the Legislature of Mississippi, and that he is now eligible, though he was not at the time of his election (January 29), because he had not then obtained a legal residence.

The State Auditor of Georgia reports a loss of two-fifths of the negro population in nine years. Reports show a heavy decrease in all the other Southern States, except, perhaps, Mississippi and Louisiana. "Shoo Fly" may be the appropriate epitaph for the last man of a once numerous race, in about seventy-five years from now.

The Milwaukee Wisconsin explains that it is the custom in that State to print the Governor's message in several foreign languages, not to accommodate citizens of foreign birth, but that it may be sent abroad as an advertisement of the condition and resources of the State, so that emigrants may be induced to make their homes there.

GOOD POLITICAL INDICATION.—Next to the vote of the House of Representatives on the Bingham amendment, says the Columbus Sun, we regard the cowhiding of Geo. Wilkes as the best political indication that has fallen under our notice of late. The successful rat catcher and dog fighter is the most special and intimate friend of Grant—yes, the man who most controls his stupidity. That a large crowd would permit Major Leland to flog the power behind the throne, is an evidence of healthy political sentiment, neither to be despised nor ignored.

JUMPING JACKS.

They Have Their Value.

General Pleasonton used to tell an amusing little Indian story. He was once, while stationed at a frontier post, quite surrounded by threatening bands of Cheyennes. He wished very much to negotiate a treaty with the chiefs, but they were too suspicious or hostile to place themselves in his power. At last he succeeded in capturing a young Indian of rank, whom he held as a hostage. One day this captive, sullenly stalking about the fort, came upon a soldier who, for want of better amusement, was playing with a child's jumping-jack. The noble savage was transfixed with wonder and admiration. He watched the antics of the little figure in breathless silence for some minutes, then turned and ran like one mad past the sentinels, leaped all obstructions, and escaped from the fort. In an incredibly short time, however, he returned, heading a deputation of chiefs, who, after spending an hour or so in wrapt contemplation of the jumping-jack, held a solemn council and negotiated the treaty, stipulating, as the most important condition, that the marvelous little toy should always remain at the fort. Might it not be well to furnish our Peace Commissioners with a quantity of jumping-jacks? They are better, at least, than rifles, tobacco and whisky.

STATE DINNER.—"And when," said Dr Blimber, raising his voice, "when, sir, as we read, and have no reason to doubt—incredible as it may appear to the vulgar of our time—the brother of Vitellius prepared for him a feast, in which were served of fish two thousand dishes—and one dish called, from its enormous dimensions, the Shield of Minerva, containing, among other costly ingredients, the brains of pheasants, etc."

So far Dr. Blimber. After reading of the sumptuous splendor of the Roman banquets, it is consolatory to reflect that we rival the Romans at this very day at the White House. In a long account (and very appetizing) of a "State Dinner" in that fine old edifice, the correspondent of a Philadelphia paper informs us that the soup in generally "ambrosial;" and that "the meridian or noon of the feast is marked by the guests being served bountifully with frozen punch"—and a nice way of making the said "meridian" it is. But we are keeping the reader from the very tid-bit of the bill of fare. "It is," states the man of the Press, "made up entirely of the luscious legs of partridges." We write this mournfully—for we like partridges. What, we ask, in an agony of unsatisfied desire, is done with the breasts of the partridges? What—in the name of the nation we demand to know—is done with the other parts? And how many birds must fall to provide one dish of these delicious but diminutive drumsticks? "Luscious!" indeed, what a miserably inadequate adjective.—N. Y. Tribune.

Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake, who is so prominent a leader in the Woman Suffrage Association of New York, is a lady of Southern birth, and niece by marriage of the late Right Rev. Leonidas Polk.

☞ The Radicals lost the State of New Hampshire by a majority of seventy votes, on the Senatorial tickets.

City and Suburban Affairs.

JOHN STEVENS, ESQ.—This gentleman is still kept in prison, notwithstanding that bond in large amount has been tendered for his release, to Gen. Terry.

DELAYED.—The morning passenger train on the State Road due here at 4:14 this morning, did not get in until about half past eleven o'clock. A freight engine ran off at Hall's Mill, five miles above Kingston, and blocked up the track, delaying the passenger train.

RAIN.—A good sized shower visited us about sunrise this morning. The sun shone out about eleven, but at the present writing (one o'clock) it is cloudy.

A planter near Baton Rouge, during the recent depression of coin, paid off his negro hands Saturday afternoon in specie. Before night every dime of it was buried, and the caches marked with "conjure balls."

NEW YORK, March 24.—The auction sale of wool to-day was largely attended, but as this is about the dullest season of the year there was not much spirit expected; still the sellers are satisfied with the prices received, which in several instances were below the appraised valuation.

A HERO GONE.—We learn of the death, at his residence, in Hancock, Md., of Dr. James Breathed, better known in the old Army of Virginia as Major Jim Breathed, of the Stuart Horse Artillery. Few men of equal rank in that army attained so great distinction for dash and bravery.

Letters from St. Petersburg state that never in the memory of man has more intense cold been experienced than that to which the people are at this moment exposed in Russia, Poland and all the Northern countries. A number of deaths from congelation are registered in the Russian journals, among them several sentries, frozen at their posts.

The Shrew.

The woman who rails and fumes at every trifling annoyance that occurs, till she makes the whole house miserable, does not know that she is committing a sin. She thinks herself wronged by circumstances or by people, and that she is exercising a righteous indignation, and making a justifiable protest against the same. She does not dream that she is digging the grave of her own happiness and esteem; but, after she has worried her family to the very verge of madness, laments her hard case in not being loved—she who would do so much for them! So she would in all probability; for, nine times out of ten, it is her temper, not her heart, that is in fault, and we frequently find the most uncomfortable shrew capable of the most heroic virtue when the pinch comes. Yet, as pinches are only occasional, and the ordinary monotonous highway the place we mostly walk is, the shrew's heroic virtues are brought into play but rarely, while shrewishness is a thing of every day, and her power, and habit, of making people unhappy one that has no ending save in death.—Saturday Review.

A GRAVE JOKE.—On Friday, we are informed, the prisoners in the jail when it was ascertained that the murderer Nixon was reprieved and that there would be no execution, procured a chicken, proceeded to the gallows in solemn procession and hung the feathery biped. They were determined not to be cheated out of their sport.—Charleston News.

☞ At a state dinner in Washington a few days since, Congressman Sawyer, of Wisconsin, who is the most talented man in the lower House, probably, in his particular line, which is running a saw-mill at Oshkosh, astonished a lady from Boston by remarking that he fairly doted on "pork and beans, rafted down his rapids with champagne."

☞ A minister in Toledo, Ohio, within ten months married a couple, baptized their first child, preached the funeral sermon of the husband, and married the widow. Verily, he seeketh things early, as one ... [illegible] a principle.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.
OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY.
THE LARGEST CITY, COUNTY AND STATE CIRCULATION. DEFIES REFUTATION.
BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.
I. W. AVERY, Editor.
MORNING EDITION.
ATLANTA, GEORGIA, MARCH 31.

Supreme Court Head Notes.

Just as soon as the Supreme Court adjourns, we will have ready for the use of the lawyers our pamphlet of the Head Notes of the Decisions of the Supreme Court of Georgia, with an index. Price, one dollar.

Will our exchanges please notice.

Grand Smash Up.

Our inquisitive contemporary of the Macon Telegraph and Messenger has been rattling among the periodicals, and finds out from the Edinburg Review that the earth is going to finally bolt into the sun and burn up, but the casualty won't happen for millions of years yet.

Well, the CONSTITUTION expects to be on hand and report the affair first, as Atlanta, with her usual enterprise, will take the flames first.

LUMBER.—In 1869 in Michigan the lumber production was two thousand millions feet; in Wisconsin, eight hundred millions; and in Minnesota, four hundred millions. The capital employed was fifty million dollars. The labor was 680,000 men, with families of 2,720,000 people.

☞ We have had no ATLANTA CONSTITUTION at this office since Saturday last. What has become of it? We assure our friend Avery, we miss him much.—Macon Telegraph and Messenger.

THE CONSTITUTION leaves our office all right, and we have every reason to believe that Postmaster Dunning does the right thing in his shanty.

The fault must lie on the route, or in the Macon Post-office.

The House to Check the Senate.

The Knoxville Herald has interviewed Secretary Fletcher, who has just returned from Washington.

He says the opinion in Congress is varied in regard to Tennessee. Butler and his crowd are for enforcing the 14th amendment, and declaring the action of the late Tennessee convention void.

Bingham, Farnsworth and their friends are for repealing the 14th amendment and declaring universal amnesty. The Senate would turn Tennessee upside down in three days, if it could, but the House will keep the Senate in check. The members of the House want re-election, and reconstruction is so unpopular that they are afraid to go to ripping up more States.

The Case of Mr. Stephens.

Perhaps the dearest privilege of all the great rights of a constitutional government, is the immunity from arrest, save upon legal warrant and distinct charges, and the germaine holy right of habeas corpus. No feature of despotic tyranny carries more terror than the power of arbitrary, secret and indefinite imprisonment. The state of government that permits a citizen to be dragged from his home and business upon the capricious volition of an irresponsible ruler, and hurried away from liberty to the dungeon, without knowledge of what he is accused, and without opportunity to redress his wrongs, is revolting to humanity, as well as in conflict with every fundamental principle of free and civilized institutions.

Yet could all the boasted powers of this day, and in the full splendor of Radical rule with all its glories, we see a private and unoffending citizen taken from his business by order of a General of the army in times of profound peace, and with the civil law in full force, and imprisoned.

We have simply to say that no circumstances can justify it. And it is a proof of law desperate and numerous Radical outrages have been that the public indignation is so wearied as hardly to quiver under this grave wrong.

A Most Excellent Suggestion.

The Cincinnati Enquirer suggests the proper method to stop the Southern slander mills in their reported Ku-Klux outrages. These outrages are the sole material used by the Radicals for furthering their schemes in the South. And whenever a plot is on hand to injure a Southern State and give the Radicals the control of it, the slander mill begins to grind out harrowing tales of Democratic intolerance.

The Enquirer thus suggests:

In every place not absolutely subjugated by the negroes, where these fabricated "outrages" are located—and nine-tenths of the reports of crimes at the South, sent North for political effect, are utterly baseless fabrications, we know—the grand juries should take up the reports, hunt down the mendacious rascals, sift their stories, and, if possible, indict the scoundrels themselves under the laws for the suppression of vagrancy or the prevention of disturbances of the public peace.

The thing has been tried in Nashville with success.

The Other Side of that Bullock Mass Meeting in Washington.

The Washington Chronicle and the Bullock organ here have made a great blow over the black and tan meeting in Washington, held to create sentiment against the Bingham amendment. The idea of a set of men in the city of Washington, not citizens of Georgia, holding meetings to press certain measures for or against Georgia, is certainly one of those monstrous interferences, that all right-minded men must condemn. While, if you state that it was composed of citizens of Georgia, it simply resolves itself into a trick of the Bullock squad, and their bought coadjutors.

To show that the affair was a failure, and did not even have a decent Republican support, we are able to reproduce the resolutions passed by the Republican "Boys in Blue" at the Union League Hall in Washington, on last Friday, about Bullock's trick.

We find them in the National Republican, a Radical paper. These resolutions show that the municipal affairs of Washington were lugged into the matter improperly.

Mr. Wm. A. Hughes next offered the following:

Whereas a public meeting was held in Lincoln Hall on Tuesday night, the 23d inst., ostensibly in the interest of the loyal people of the South, and particularly of the loyal people of Georgia, but really in the interest of the corrupt ring that now rules this city, and

Whereas, through the instrumentality of the same corrupt ring, the delegation in Congress from the State of New Hampshire, and Senator H. R. Revels, of Mississippi, were serenaded on Wednesday night, and

Whereas resolutions were passed censuring the Republican members of the House of Representatives who voted for what is known as the Bingham amendment to the bill now before Congress to admit the State of Georgia to representation in that body, and also censuring the Republican Senators who favor that amendment, and

Whereas, such Republican members of the House of Representatives as John A. Bingham, John A. Logan, James A. Garfield, Nathaniel P. Banks, Henry L. Dawes, Robert C. Schenck and other Republican statesmen who are known to the country, some of whom distinguished themselves on the field of battle in the dark days of the rebellion fighting for our country, voted for the amendment; and

Whereas, such Republican statesmen as Lyman Trumbull, George F. Edmunds, Roscoe Conkling, Matt H. Carpenter, Fred. A. Sawyer, Carl Shurz and other Senators well known to the country favor the said amendment, therefore,

Resolved, That we think it unwise and unbecoming in the Republicans of this District to express any opinion in regard to the said Bingham amendment, and that the attempt to injure the gallant Representatives in Congress who sustain that amendment is outrageous and contemptible.

Resolved, that the attempt of the City Hall ring to bring national affairs belonging exclusively to Congress into our local affairs of this District, can not be approved by us or the true Republicans of said District.

Resolved, That we express the warmest sympathy for the true Republicans and loyal men of the South, that we condemn the wicked acts of the Ku-Klux and rebels who have oppressed them, and we will render any lawful and proper aid to the true men in the South, who are in sympathy with our government.

Mr. O. D. Barrett, in support of the resolutions, said that it did not become the citizens of the District to censure the acts of Congress. It was composed of men elected to consider national matters. They devoted their time to such matters, and if the loyal members of the Republican party, men who had displayed their zeal on many a battle-field, were not to be trusted, the disapprobation of some of the citizens would have no weight. Granting that we have the right to criticise a measure while it is pending before Congress, the people of the District would better show their respect by their silence.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Massachusetts.

Congressman Morgan, of Ohio, is irreverent to Massachusetts. The audacious fellow has absolutely had the impertinence to hold up the old State to some damaging comment. This insult to Puritanism has put the saints to shaking with horror. The grand fountain of all Yankee good, the mighty and immaculate Massachusetts furnished for the late war 197 less regiments than New York, 180 less than Pennsylvania and 162 less than Ohio. Yet Morgan has the effrontery to call attention to the fact that Massachusetts had drawn from the Federal Treasury on the pretext of war expenditures $1,187,671 more than New York; $1,392,984 more than Pennsylvania, and $911,243 more than Ohio.

Morgan caps the climax of this lashing by the horrible statement that Massachusetts' claims were regarded as a broad joke, and only paid finally to get rid of her importunities.

Morgan winds up with the following settler:

And I repeat what I have before said, that with a vigilance which never slumbers, with a shrewdness which never miscalculates, with an avarice which is never satisfied, the monopolists of New England have fastened themselves like leeches upon the heart of the nation, and they are now drinking its life blood.

Pianos.

The American piano trade is astonishing the world, and our instruments are superceding all others. To-day the large exportation of these instruments proves their superiority over the European.

The New York Star has made a table of the sales of over twenty-six piano manufacturers for the year 1869. The aggregate was $5,248,577. There are smaller firms whose sales would run the number to 25,000 instruments, netting over seven millions of dollars. Steinway & Sons, of New York, sold 2,200 pianos.

The difficulty seems to be the vast capital needed, and the trouble in selling the instruments. Unknown makes sell with difficulty, while leading manufactures find a ready sale.

A Scrap of Radical History.

We desire to be of service to Radicalism in keeping up its chronicles fairly and fully. We know of no better way to give it the proper oder for an impartial posterity. It boasts of its progress, and we generously accord its progress, and put its progress on the record. Its progress outside of law and humanity is pre-eminent. The fair historian must accord it much that is remarkable. The good old notions of right and morality are to show for it. It has a grand superiority over trammels of any kind.

The richest morcean of the age is Senator Ames' credentials, which we record. They need no comment. They are unique, progressive, unapproachable, damnable:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF MISSISSIPPI,
JACKSON, MISS., Jan. 25, 1870.

I, Adelbert Ames, Brevet Major General United States army, Provisional Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby certify that Adelbert Ames was elected United States Senator by the Legislature of this State on the 18th day of January, 1870, for the unexpired term which commenced on the 4th day of March, 1869, and which will end on the 4th day of March, 1875.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the great seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed, the 25th day of January, 1870. [L. S.]

ADELBERT AMES.
Brevet Maj. Gen. United States Army.
Provisional Governor of Mississippi.

Hurrah for Ames!

MALES IN BRACELETS.—A New York correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says: "I was riding in an omnibus the other day, when some Adolphus, with his hair parted in the middle, reached up his fare, and upon his thin little arm was a heavy band bracelet. Shortly I noticed he had another upon his other arm; and since then, a party dining at an opposite table at Delmonico's, displayed the same ornaments upon the wrists of three gentlemen."

☞ The Tomah (Wis.) Journal says: "An Indian lady passed by our office the other day, with a quarter of venison and two papooses on her back, a jug of whisky in one hand, and a wigwam in the other.

☞ A young man from the country was supping with some city acquaintance—chiefly females. Thinking to have fun at his expense, one of the girls said to him, "You country folks don't often drink genuine tea, and perhaps you would prefer the adulterated stuff. Now what kind would you like?" "If its all the same to you, I will take a little civil-tea, mixed with a little modest-tea—a combination I see you have not got."

☞ Representative Rogers, at Washington, having opposed the appropriation for the pay of the female clerks, has been presented by them with four leather medals.

Got Its Eyes Open.

The Nashville Banner, erstwhile rather a warm admirer of the lively Bullock-Blodgett combination to ruin Georgia and degrade her people, has somewhat changed its tune, of late. What sort of an eye opener it has experienced, we can not say. After such an article as appears below, we venture the hope that no more Atlanta letters eulogistic of the B's, and denunciary of the Democrats of Georgia, will appear in the Banner. There's nothing like attending to one's own business, however, after all.—Macon Telegraph and Messenger.

It says:

Georgia has a Governor as able [not much—Eds. Tel. and Mess.] as he is unscrupulous, and most of the troubles which now afflict her are directly ascribable to his machinations. Bullock has been the moving spirit in this business from the beginning. It was through him that Georgia was remanded back to the tender mercies of arbitrary power, through him that Terry resigned, through him that the Legislature was stripped of Conservative members and given into the hands of the Radicals. The authority of Bullock has been well nigh omnipotent nor does he intend to abate a single jot or title of it. The Bingham amendment is intended to limit this man's domination, and to fix a time when Georgia might rid herself of Bullock and Bullock's policy. Mr. Bingham expressly declared in his speech that the Governor of Georgia was nothing less than a public plunderer; that, if retained in office, he would remove every member of the judiciary, from the Chief Justice down, and secure from the Railroad rings more than a million dollars annually for his own pocket. The character of the member from Ohio is a sufficient guaranty that he would not make such statements as these unless there was foundation for them, nor do we know that Bullock has ever ventured an emphatic denial of the charges preferred. He probably thinks the game is in his own hands already, and that he can afford to let his reputation go so long as he secures the coveted prize.

What a commentary upon the party in power it is that such a man as this should stand forward as the representative of "loyalty," and that he should be able to accomplish his own aggrandizement at the expense of an oppressed people, by simply appealing to the passions and prejudices of the mob.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

Pierre Napoleon—A Dramatic Suicide—An Editor Dies—Conscripts—A Daring Demi-Monde Butterfly—The French Academy—Isabella's Husband—Other Matters.

Special Foreign Cor. of The Constitution.]

PARIS, March 12, 1870.

Editor Constitution: The requisite jury list has been filled up, out of which, thirty-six members, with power to add to their number to the extent of four, will be chosen by lot to try Prince Pierre Napoleon. At Tours, the city is divided into two equal camps respecting the Prince's guilt. The whole point turns on the fact, yes or no, did Noir, the deceased, strike the Prince before the latter fired? Fonville, the only witness of the tragedy, asserts no, but witnesses are forthcoming to prove that immediately after the homicide was committed, Fonville expressed gratification that Noir had, at all events, "well struck the Prince."

Meantime, the hot dispute about Prince Pierre's crime, at Tours, has not had the effect of lowering Californian prices in that city.

The only change that has taken place in the ambassadorial world, is the resignation and departure of Salnave's representative for St. Domingo. This worthy gentleman dropped a farewell card at the several embassies, surrounded with a mourning border—whether a compliment to the deceased General, or the insignia of Quashell, the black band is a mystery.

Rather a dramatic suicide took place at Neuilly yesterday. A gardener, in comfortable circumstances, entered a dramshop, and asked the bar girl for a small glass full of rum, of the best quality, that he was about undertaking a very cold journey, and would never see her again. Having finished his rum, he quietly vaulted over the bridge, and fell into the Seine. He was seen by a young man, who plunged in, but what was his horror, to find himself rescuing his father, who insisted on drowning himself. The struggle and debate were but short; assistance soon brought the two men to land, but the father expired after a few hours.

It is a rare event for a Parisian journalist to die, surrounded by the universal regret of his confreres. Yet such has been the happiness of Count de Riancey's family, on the death of its head. The Count was editor of the Univers, the organ of aristocratic catholicity, and of the claims of him who is called "Sire" at Frasdorff, and "the King" in the Faubourg St. Germain. Deceased had been at Rome to do the international meeting of the fathers, but returned to Paris to die of rheumatism of the heart. Around his dying bed were seated his wife, children, and a few intimate friends, with whom he conversed till a few minutes before his death. His publications were blessed by the Pope, but their sale was not so rapid as those books for which the honors of the "index" are reserved. On his deathbed lie two telegrams, one from Pio Nino, conveying absolutism, the other from Henry the Fifth, thanking his good and faithful serviteur.

After the conscripts are "drawn," the poor fellows are allowed to enjoy themselves for the remainder of the day of balloting, and the police turn a blind eye to their pranks—excepting marching—in advance to glory, linked three abreast, and full of wine or German beer, with plenty of noise, understood to be songs; the future braves do no further harm. This week, however, some 600 conscripts, with the trievlor covered with crape, marched to the office of Rochefort's journal, singing prohibited songs, and uttering seditious cries. Like prisoners, they seemed to fall back on the privilege of cursing their judges for twenty-four hours. They were allowed to depart in peace.

A more than ordinary brazen member of the demi-monde, dressed as a duchess, presented herself a few nights ago at a ball, given by one of the most distinguished families of Paris. She was admitted. Soon her character became known—mothers gather their chickens under their wings, until the black sheep was expelled, whose only apology for her audacity was, her desire to see how a ball in the grand-monde is conducted.

M. Saleil was head clerk in the Bank of France, and it was his signature that gave legality to the notes of that establishment. At his funeral, which took place a few days ago, the friends, according to custom, sprinkle holy water on the coffin when in the grave, and retire. A fellow-clerk refused to take the sprinkler when handed to him, but gathering up a handful of clay, threw it on the coffin, adding: "Saleil, you have perjured yourself; you several times swore to die a free thinker, and still not allow the church to bury you." Immense sensation.

The French Academy consists of forty members, familiarly called immortels. The institution was founded by Cardinal Mazarin, and was intended to group the most distinguished literary minds of the nation, who were, above all, to decide upon all questions affecting the purity of the mother tongue. This cardinal object is just what is overlooked, and the Academy is now but a close borough, where the Orleanists dominate, and all men are eligible except an Imperialist. When a death occurs, there is much intriguing to gain the vacant fauteuil. The duty of the newly elected is to blow the horn for his predecessor, and the President responds by trumpeting the praises of the orator. M. de Champagny has been just initiated as successor to Bernger. When Fontenelle was elected an Academian, he exclaimed with a sigh of relief, "Thank God, there are only thirty-nine people in the world wiser than myself."

The suit of the ex-King of Spain, for a separation, on the ground of extravagance, from Isabella, has failed to be amicably arranged. The Don sees nothing in the Chateaux en Espagne, by which his wife hopes to retrieve their fortunes, and likely to provide for the future rainy days in store for the exiles. It would not do to have the Prince of Austria as penniless a pretender as Don Carlos.

Two of the most popular liqueurs in France are manufactured by confraternities of Monks. They have never claimed for their products any miraculous cures. However, in the vicinity of Grenoble, another body of religieux announce the [illegible]aration of an elixir, "infallible" for plants [illegible] and distilled fountains—[illegible] on the famous "Holy M[illegible] bottles [illegible] "twenty-eight francs a dozen."

Yvon has had a successful reunion in his studies on Thursday [illegible] celebrate the completion of his historical painting—the "United States," executed for A. T. Stewart, of New York. Mr. Elward gave the invited a [illegible] on Liberty, which was warmly received. In reference to the picture as a whole, it is meritorious, but very unequal. The same artist is engaged with another large painting—"Skating in the Bois"—wherein will be introduced the portraits of the most celebrated lady members—American, French, and English—of the Skating Club.

Mrs. Burlingame and her two sons are expected in Paris to-morrow, en route for home. They wish to be present at the meeting of sympathy for the loss she has sustained, to be held on the 16th.

BOURRIEFF.

DECISIONS —OF THE— SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Delivered at Atlanta, Wednesday, March 30.

[REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION, BY N. J. HAMMOND, SUPREME COURT REPORTER.]

Dawson B. Lane, Guardian, and Early W. Thrasher, plaintiffs in error, vs. Abner M. Partee and wife, defendants in error. Motion to reinstate, and petition for mandamus nisi.

WARNER, J.

When a case was called in its order upon the docket of this Court, and a motion was made to dismiss it on the ground that the bill of exceptions had not been certified and signed within thirty days after the decison was made at chambers, and no reason given in the certificate of the Judge why it was not signed and certified within the thirty days as provided by the Code, and this Court dismissed the writ of error on that ground, and ordered the judgment of the Court below to be affirmed. On the next morning after the writ of error was dismissed, and before the minutes of the Court had been read and approved by the Court, the counsel for the plaintiff in error made a motion to have the judgment of the Court dismissing the writ of error and affirming the judgment of the Court below set aside and the case reinstated on the docket, and that a mandamus nisi be issued by this Court to the presiding Judge, to show cause why he should not state in his certificate the reason why he did not sign and certify the bill of exceptions within the thirty days. The motion for a mandamus was in writing, and the truth of the facts stated therein was verified by the oath of one of the counsel in the case from which it appears that the bill of exceptions was presented to the Judge within the thirty days, but that he having objections to some of the facts stated therein, did not return the same to the plaintiff or his attorney within ten days, as required by the Code, but retained the same in his possession until after the expiration of thirty days, and then certified and signed said bill of exceptions without stating any reason therein for his delay and failure to sign and certify the same within the thirty days, as required by law.

Held: That, inasmuch as the Code provides that if, from any cause, the bill of exceptions is not certified by the Judge, without fault of the party tendering the same, such party, or his attorney, shall apply at the next term of the Supreme Court, wherever it may be, and may, on petition, obtain from said Court a mandamus nisi directed to such Judge. And that, inasmuch as the Court, at the time of the adoption of the Code, held its terms at several different times and places in the State, the application for mandamus might have been made at any time during the next term of the Court, and as the terms of the Court have since been located at one place, and as the present term of the Court is the next term held, since the bill of exceptions was tendered to the Judge, and no time specified either in the Code or by the rules of this Court, within what time during the term of the Court the mandamus shall be applied for, the plaintiff in error is within the provisions of the Code, when he applies for a mandamus at any time during the term, as he has done in this case.

Held, further, that inasmuch as it is shown to this Court during the term, by the oath of the attorney for the plaintiff in error, that the bill of exceptions was tendered to the Judge within the thirty days from the date of his decision at chambers, and that it is not his fault that the same was not properly signed and certified, that he is entitled to the mandamus prayed for in his petition, and that the case be reinstated on the docket of this Court, and that the order dismissing the same be rescinded and set aside, in order that the plaintiff in error may not loose any of his rights in the case, by reason of the failure of the Judge to certify his bill of exceptions as required by law.

Mandamus nisi granted.

J. D. Pope & B. H. Thrasher, for plaintiffs.

Augustus Reese, for defendants.

New Rules of Court.

Ordered, That the following be adopted as additional rules of this Court, which the reporter is directed to publish with the 39th volume of Georgia reports, and to cause a copy of the rule relating to the duties of clerks with a copy of this order, to be forwarded to each clerk of the Superior and City Courts of this State, for their instruction, that there may be no cause for instituting proceedings against any of them for neglect of the duty therein prescribed.

Rule 29. If any Judge of the Superior or City Courts shall neglect or refuse to sign and certify any bill of exceptions as required by law; or shall fail or refuse to specify in his certificate the cause of delay, in case he has withheld his signature till after the expiration of the thirty days, within which he is required to sign the same, for any of the causes justifying such delay; the party tendering the bill of exceptions, if he desires a mandamas nisi, to be directed to such Judge, must make his appliсation by petition to this Court, as prescribed by section 4198 of the revised Code, on or before the third day of the term of this Court, next after the bill of exceptions is tendered, or he will not be heard; and the case, if upon the docket of this Court, will be dismissed and the judgment of the court below stand affirmed.

Rule 30. It shall be the duty of each and every clerk of the Superior or City Courts, to send up each original bill of exceptions, with his certificate thereupon that it is the original to the clerk of this Court, just as it is received from the Judge, separate and distinct from, and disconnected with the record, or any other document or paper. If kept separate, the bill of exceptions and the transcript of the record may, for the convenience of the clerk, be forwarded in the same envelope or cover.

AFRICAN BON-TON.

Jenkins Does Up Female Cuffee in Her Dancing Duds.

A satirical writer in the Tallahassee Floridian, gives the following amusing description of three costumes worn at the recent darkey tournament in that place: "We made a minute inspection of two or three of the outfits of the belles present, and find them to consist of the following:

"Miss ——, arrayed in a tortoise colored moire antique, underskirt flounced with a series of rows of Scotch plaid, Vandyked and scolloped—the upper edge of which was bound with red braid, ripped from a horse blanket, overskirt of blue merino looped up with shoe laces to form a panier, laced boddice of stripped berage with velvet ruffle, collar of Swiss muslin with cuffs to match, Montpensier hat with the wing of a spring chicken as trimming, shawl of deep blue mosquito netting and a pair of soiled kid gloves, fragrant with assafœtida.

Miss ——, attired in an evening toilet of soiled red cotton velvet, in its length so scanty as to reveal a pair of No. 10 brogans, close fitting sacque of osnaburg with plain sleeves, a wide sash of chintz calico cut from an old window curtain, Tyrolese hat exquisitely adorned with a buzzard wing lately shot in defiance of the statute upon that subject, chignon of the proportion of a 40 pound shot, pulling the hair so tight she could scarcely shut her eyes, shawl of Swiss muslin well spangled with stars made from the wrappers of Century tobacco. No gloves—perfume extract of stinkweed.

Miss ——, dressed in a jonquil colored alpaca, with faded flowers of Canton flannel, cut en train waist, a la Pompadour, with similar trimming, straight sleeves with ruffles of Chantilly lace, alias an old veil, shawl, a cast off piano cover, a Minerva hat, woolen mitts—perfume hydrosulphate of ammonia. This will convey to the reader some idea of the style exhibited on the occasion.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The President, in a message to Congress, says it is unusual to notify Congress, by message, of the proclamation of the ratification of a Constitutional Amendment. In view, however, of the vast importance of the 15th Amendment, this day declared part of that revered instrument, the departure from the usual course is justifiable. A measure which makes four millions of people voters, who were heretofore declared by the highest judicial tribunals, not citizens, not eligible to become so, is a measure of grander importance than any one act since the foundation of our free Government. The President calls upon the newly enfranchised race to make themselves worthy of their privileges; urges the whites to withhold no legal privilege of advancement to the new citizens; quotes from Washington regarding the importance, intelligence and education; calls upon Congress to promote and encourage the popular education, and upon all people everywhere, to see that all who possess political rights shall have opportunity to acquire that knowledge which shall make their share in the Government a blessing instead of a danger. By such means only can the benefits contemplated by this amendment be secured.

Colonel Robb, Collector of Customs at Savannah, is before the Committee on appropriations, urging $200,000 for the improvement of the Savannah river.

Revenue receipts to-day, nearly half a million.

The proclamation is too late to effect the Connecticut election on Monday, registration having closed.

The proclamation enumerates the following States as having ratified the Amendment: North Carolina, West Virginia, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Maine, Louisiana, Michigan, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, New York, New Hampshire, Nevada, Vermont, Virginia, Alabama, Missouri, Mississippi, Ohio, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Nebraska and Texas—in all, 29 States.

The Senate confimed Dr. Bard as Governor of Idaho.

In Connecticut, the negroes were in anticipation of the promulgation of the 15th Amendment, and were nearly all registered, and will vote.

In the Senate Revels presented a petition from 2,000 Georgians for an appropriation for the Wilberforce, Ohio, College.

A bill erecting public buildings at Little Rock, Arkansas, passed.

Executive session—House—Messrs. Cox and Banks both expressed themselves averse to individual disability bills.

Replying to the question, Butler said as soon as the tariff bill was out of the way, he would press the general amnesty bill.

A bill admitting Texas, as amended by the Senate, passed, by 130 to 50.

A bill selling the Natchez, Miss., marine hospital for educational purposes, passed.

The Democrats from New York and Indiana protested against counting those States for the 15th amendment.

The tariff bill was resumed.

Adjourned.

RICHMOND, March 30.—Argument in the injunction case of Cahoon vs. Ellison, rival Mayor, closed in the United States Circuit Court to-day, ex-Gov. Wise making the closing speech for Cahoon. He repudiated in strong terms any affiliation with the Black Republican party. He claimed to be still an unrepentant rebel, and did not want his position misunderstood because he appeared as counsel for the Republican claimant.

Cahoon's counsel claimed that the Court has jurisdiction because Cahoon, as provisional appointee, is a U. S. officer not to go out of office till the regular election by the people.

Ellison's counsel claimed that the admission of the State terminated the powers of all provisional officers. The decision affects all offices in the State, which are nearly all filled by military appointees, who remain in till July, if the decision is given in favor of Cahoon.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—A meeting of the officers who served with General Thomas, was held here to-night, to make preparations for a meeting in the Hall of the House of Representatives, in honor of his memory. The President, Cabinet officers and Diplomatic Corps will be present.

Bradley, to-night, received a number of New Jerseymen, including the Congressional delegation and Secretary Robeson, who called to offer their congratulations on his appointment to the Supreme Bench. In the course of his reply, Bradley stated, emphatically, that he entered upon the discharge of his duties without any pledges on any question whatever, and actuated only by a sincere desire to do right.

In the House, Mr. Arnell, from the Committee on Education and Labor reported a bill to allow the school trustees in the State of Arkansas to enter lands for school purposes under the homestead law, allowing them to take in, fence and improve 40 acres for each school.

On motion of Julian the bill was sent to the Speaker's table.

Arnell, from the same committee, reported a bill providing that the office of education in the Department of the Interior shall be hereafter named the Bureau of Education, and all unexpended funds in the treasury, to the account of the Freedmen's Bureau, for the education and support of refugees and freedmen, shall be transferred to the account of the Bureau of Education, having especial reference to aiding in the establishment of useful and common schools for freedmen. It also transfers to the War Department the other duties of the Freedmen's Bureau, thus discontinuing that bureau.

Arnell, in explaining the bill, eulogized the Freedmen's Bureau, its Chief, Gen. O. O. Howard and Mr. Elliot, of Massachusetts, the member who had introduced and was the father of the Freedmen's Bureau bill.

McNeely, as a member of the minority, desired to offer a substitute abolishing the Freedmen's Bureau, turning over all its funds to the Treasury, transferring the buildings of the Bureau to the several States wherein situated, placing all the hospitals and asylums of the Bureau under the supervision of the Secretary of War, and directing a final settlement of the accounts of the Bureau within a month.

Mr. Arnell declined to permit the substitute to be offered, and demanded the previous question.

Mr. Walker protested against action on the bill without an opportunity to discuss or amend it.

The morning hour expired and the bill went over till next morning.

A large number of claims against Mexico were first examined here, and will go forward from the State Department to Mexico for examination and rebutting testimony there. They are to be returned in four months, when they will pass into the hands of a Mexican Claim Commission for award.

This Preparation surpasses all others of its class as a Hair Renewer.

It is thorough in its action upon Gray or Faded Hair and its effect permanent.

It produces but one distinct shade, while others leave the hair in many varied colors.

It promotes growth when others fail to produce a single hair.

It does not crisp or dry the hair, but leaves it moist and glossy.

Ladies find it superior to any other as a Toilet Dressing.

The ingredients used in this Preparation are the very best that can be found, and are as harmless as water.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

WHY is it that so many children die under the age of five years? That a large proportion of children die under that age, has long been a subject of remark, and without a satisfactory cause ascertained, it is certain.

Also, it is known that worms exist in the human system from its earliest infancy; therefore parents, especially mothers, who are more constantly with their children, can not be too observing of the first symptoms of worms; for so surely as they exist, can they be safely and certainly removed from the most Delicate Infant, by the timely use of

B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

It is perfectly harmless, contains no Mercury, being a purely Vegetable Composition, and may be administered with the utmost safety to children of all ages.

Worm Confections, made more for the purpose of pleasing the palate than of overcoming the disease, have been manufactured all over the country, but their short lease of life is surely extended, and B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge continues to grow in favor daily.

CAUTION.

Should occasion require you to purchase B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, be particularly careful too see that the initials are B. A. This is the article that has been so

Favorably Known Since 1829,

And purchasers must insist on having it, if they do not wish to have an invilition forced upon them.

WHY IS IT THE CONSTITUTION Job Office get so many Pamphlets and Catalogues to print?

ANSWER—Because the work can't be beat for cheapness and superiority of style.

MASONIC.—Atlanta Lodge (Masonic) will meet at 8 o'clock, to-night. Grand Master Samuel Lawrence will lecture. The fraternity are invited to attend.

DR. SAMUEL BARD.—The Telegraphic column announces the confirmation of Dr. Bard as Governor of Idaho. The Doctor has our best wishes in his retirement.

NEW AUCTION HOUSE.—We learn that Capt. John H. Barrett will open a new auction house on Whitehall street in a few days. Success to the Captain.

FINE MATERIAL.—The best presses and pressmen in the city, at THE CONSTITUTION Job Office.

WESTERN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD BONDS.—The Financial Chronicle, of New York, gives $5,778,000 as the amount of State Road bonds now in that market.

NEW ATTRACTION.—Orion Dozier is to have a soda font at the Post-Office stand. "Shoo, Fly, don't bodder me."

BOARDING.—Parties wishing to secure excellent boarding, can do so at Mrs. Wagner's, on Hunter street opposite the Catholic Church. Good fare, and house situated close to the business part of the city.

SUPREME COURT.—After a protracted and arduous session of several months, the Supreme court has closed. The Court will meet to-day at eleven o'clock, for the delivery of the remaining decisions.

RELEASED.—J. L. Wing, one of the four persons arrested near Roswell Bridge, and confined at McPherson Barracks by the military authorities, has been released.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.—A. T. Stewart, of New York, has reduced the rents of his property from ten to thirty per cent. Worthy of being imitated in Atlanta.

TO SHOW MEN.—Get your circulars, posters, programmes, etc., printed at THE CONSTITUTION Job Office if you want them done well.

WILL THEY DO IT?—A friend writes us to know if the Georgia Legislature, when it reassemble next month, "Will repeal the ten commandments?" No! but they will reconstruct them to suit their views!

CUTTING SCRAPE.—A man named Gulliver cut a man named Davidson severely, at the Calhoun House, last night. We learn that it grew out of a dispute about fifty cents. Davidson was severely cut on the head, arm and leg, but not dangerously, it is supposed.

NEW MUSIC DEPOT.—Messrs. George Cook & Co., will open, as soon as the building is completed, in the Grant block, on Marietta street, a new music store, where musical instruments, books, etc., will be offered to the public. We wish the new firm success.

BILL HEADS.—At THE CONSTITUTION Office can be had bill heads, letter heads, statements, in fact everything in the job printing line.

CARRIER SICK.—The carrier in the First Ward is sick, which will account for our subscribers in that Ward failing to get their papers as early as usual yesterday morning. We will endeavor to have them supplied, however, as early in the morning as possible, under the circumstances.

BROAD STREET BEEF MARKET.—William Kirtland will in a few days open a beef market in the old Post office building, corner of Broad and Alabama streets. He will keep on hand choice meats of all kinds. 'Tis mete that such an establishment should be opened on Broad street, and we hope that Mr. Kirkland may meet with abundant success.

THE DICKSON SWEEP.—In another column appears the advertisement of Mr. W. S. Hemphill, of Athens, who manufactures the genuine Dickson Sweep. Those who have tried the Dickson Sweep, ourself among the number, pronounce it the best sweep ever used. Mr. Hemphill has achieved the reputation of putting them up all right, and those wishing to secure the genuine Dickson Sweep, can do so by addressing orders to him at Athens, Georgia.

JOB WORK.—If you want a neat business card, send to THE CONSTITUTION Job Office.

JOHN S. WISE.—The Memphis and Charleston Railroad have been fortunate in securing the services of so energetic and live a man as John S. Wise as agent of that road, and the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company. He is wide awake to their interest and the wants of the commercial world. The blockade being over, he now announces that the Companies are delivering freight from St. Louis to Atlanta, in from seven to nine days.

DRY GOODS AT AUCTION.—Mr. John Boyle, well known to the citizens of Atlanta, has arrived, and will hold forth for some time in the Gate City. We call attention to the fact that the sale of dry goods at auction will commence to-day at Kile's corner, and continue until the stock is disposed of. The goods are in charge of Mr. Boyle, who is an expert in the dry goods business.

FIRE.—Between eleven and twelve o'clock last night, a store-house on Mitchell street, across the Macon and Western Railroad, owned by a Mr. Brown, and occupied by him for the manufacture of lager beer barrels and as a small grocery store, was destroyed by fire. His residence adjoining caught on fire, but was saved without serious damage. We could gather no particulars as to the origin of the fire, or the amount of Mr. Brown's loss.

FANCY Printing done at THE CONSTITUTION Job Office.

THE FORT GAINES LOTTERY.—Mr. Simmons, a gent well known to lottery men as among the best and most experienced men in the business, is now in the city. He is direct from New York, and his object in visiting our city is, as we learn, to open the Fort Gaines lottery.

Mr. Simmons has the highest reputation as a business man and gentleman, and if lotteries are legal in this State, we prefer that class of gentlemen to control them.

Judge Lochrane has been retained as the general attorney for the lotteries by Mr Simmons.

THE AIR-LINE RAILROAD.—This Road is being pushed forward with vigor. The construction train is now running to the 11 mile post, and is expected soon to reach the new town of "Cousin John," seven miles beyond. In ten or twelve days the cars will be running to Norcross or Pinkneyville, twenty miles from this city, which will be the first twenty miles of the road. The road has been graded five miles beyond Pinkeyville, and the road, it is thought, will be completed to Gainesville by fall. There are some 500 or 600 men at work on the road.

DON'T FAIL to try the Job Office of THE CONSTITUTION.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—For the Northern District of Georgia—Hon John Erskine Judge.—The case of Martin and Hopper, charged with passing counterfeit money, was argued by counsel yesterday, taking up the entire session in the discussion. The point to be decided, is whether the former acquittal on the ground of informality in indictment protects them from further trial. If it is decided that it does not, the [illegible] continued until next term. The [illegible] were discharged for the term. Messrs. [illegible] Hopkins gave notice of application [illegible] corpus in case of John [illegible] barracks, [illegible] days, and SPECIAL CONTRIBUTION.—[illegible] ...ered, for insulting John Frith, colored, by [illegible] and battery, was arraigned before Justice Spencer yesterday, and paid, as the price of his amusement, the costs of court.

Joe Hunnicut was arraigned for slapping a negro girl for whipping his child. As the suit was instituted to levy "black mail," or make Mr. Hunnicut "pay for it," and as he was justifiable under the law, Justice Spencer very sensibly dismissed the warrant and imposed the costs on the prosecutor.

This was all the peace offerings we could gather of any consequence.

THE IRISH.—We heartily endorse and adopt the language of Rough Rice's Ready Reporter relative to the sons and daughters of the Emerald Isle:

"God bless the genius, wit, eloquence and warm-heartedness of the Irish. God bless them for the courage of their men; the purity of their women; for their open hands; their warm hearts; their broad shoulders; their joyous laugh; their strong religious faith, and their love for old Ireland, a love that can not be conquered.

We are gratified when we reflect upon the magnitude of the Irish element in our country; this accession is valuable to us—more valuable than any of the immigrants who come to the United States. The public works of our country; its railroads; its canals; in fact all that aids to improve, to benefit and prosper us, has been assisted by Irish bone and muscle.

And who does not like the Irish; who refuses to assimilate with this impulsive, frank and intrepid people? No class of immigrants has done more to aid and advance the moral and intellectual growth of our country. In public and private life the Irish and their descendants have brought forward able men in all departments."

GENERAL MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, March 26.

Provisions opened firm and higher yesterday, and the market was somewhat excited; sales were considerable, footing up 500 or 600 transactions; kettle lard at 15; 806 bbls, mess pork at 27 00, etc., also 600 transactions; sugar cured hams, various deliveries at 16 7-8a17 1-2.

To-day the market is without animation; a stand off between buyers and sellers, and bulk meats are lower. This is partly the result of the weather, which is rainy and gloomy, and the prospective offering of contract meats in large quantities in large numbers next week, (hardly probable.) The trade here has not the energy and pluck that is displayed at other points. If there are buyers for stuff, packers won't sell, but when there is no market, then they can be approached to advantage. Transactions were light to-day.

BULK MEATS—9 3-4 is offered for shoulders; rib sides, clear rib and clear held at 13 1-4, 14, and 14 1-2 loose; 1-4 less would have to be accepted to effect sales. 50,000 lbs clear rib sold at 13 3-4.

BULK HAMS—13 loose, 13 1-4a13 1-2 packed.

BACON—10 7-8, 15 and 15 1-2 shoulders, clear rib and clear; slack demand; 10 casks shoulders brought 11.

BACON HAMS—Canvassed sold at 15 1-2 for 12 lb average.

S. C. HAMS—Are in large demand, and sales this week for spot and future delivery foot up near 2,000 trcs, in round lots. They are going off briskly. The best brands have been jobbing in 25 and 50 tierce lots at 17a17 1-2.

P. HAMS—Are held at 14 for city—a fraction less might buy.

LARD—Is in more request than anything besides hams; 100 tierces brought 15. Country lots offered at same. Prime steam is wanted by manufacturers at 14 1-2a14 3-4, but held firmly at 15. The exports of lard from New York, from Jan. 1, '70, to March 18, are in pounds equal to 28,618 tierces, against 23,198 tierces same time last year, a gain of 5,420 tierces.

CHATTANOOGA, March 28.

Business in corn and other articles of produce continues dull. The river trade has not yet recovered from the depression caused by the detention of the steamers.

Some little bacon is coming in from the surrounding country, and is readily bought at quotations. We note the shipment to-day, of 20,000 lbs.

NASHVILLE, March 28.

FLOUR—Market active; shipments to-day of 280 bbls on a basis of 5 00a6 75 for supers to fancy.

CORN—Shipments to-day of 3,121 bushels white, sacked and delivered in depot at 1 00 per bushel, and 300 bushels yellow at 97½ in depot. Sales from store of 1,600 bushels at 90a92½.

BULK MEATS—Clear sides 14 3-4; clear rib sides 14 1-4; shoulders 10 1-2.

BACON—Clear sides 15 3-4; clear rib none; shoulders 11 1-2; country hams 15 3-4.

CHOICE HAMS—Hart & Hensley's sugar-cured C. C. C., canvased, 19; plain C. C. C, canvased. 18.

LARD—Choice in tierce 15 3-4a16; kegs 17 1-2; cans 17; 10 lb caddies 18; 5 and 3 lb caddies 18 3-4.

PETERSBURG, March 28.

Market very active. Receipts small and [illegible] ...ing to quality of loose, suitable for wrappers, but not cool cured, 15 00a17 50. Short dark leaf, suitable for black work fillers, selling very high. We quote lugs, dark, 7 00a7 50; good 8 00a10 00. Leaf, short, dark, 9 50a11 50; long dark 11 00a15 00. NEW ORLEANS, March 27.

SUGAR AND MOLASSES.—The receipts this morning comprised 110 hhds sugar, 156 bbls molasses. Rainy weather interrupted the movement on the landing to-day, and little or no business was done in consequence. The market is unchanged, however, and we quote inferior sugar at 6 1-2a7 1-2, common 7 1-2a8 1-4, fair to good 9a9 1-2, fully fair, 10a10 1-4, prime 10 3-4a11, no choice here; yellow clarified 12 1-2, white clarified 13 1-2a13 3-4.

Fermenting Molasses 25a45 per gallon; reboiled 40a45, as in quality. City refinery reboiled 50a78; syrup 1 00a1 10 per gallon.

LOUISVILLE, March 28.

WHEAT—A better feeling prevails in the market, and dealers report a gradual increase in the demand. Receipts are liberal, and stocks are sufficient to meet the demand of the trade. We note sales of 400 bushels choice white wheat at 1 25 per bushel. We quote on arrival at 1 00a1 05, and sales are made from store ranging from 1 05a1 20 per bushel for red, white and amber.

OATS—Are in active demand, and dealers report receipts light, consequently stocks can not be in excess of the demand, but rather demand in excess of the capacity of stocks. Prices rule firm but not quotably higher, and we note sales of 500 bushels, sacks included, at 65 per bushel. We quote white and blacks seed oats at 72a75 per bushel. Feed oats command 62a65 per bushel, in sacks, and bulk command 55a60 per bushel.

CORN—Prices rule firm, but not quotably higher, and there is a decided improvement visible in the market. Stocks are ample, and dealers are negotiating to effect extensive transactions. Sales to-day include 2,500 bushels choice white shell corn at 95 per bushel. We quote shelled corn, sacks inclusive, at 93a95 per bushel, and in bulk at 83a85 per bushel. Ear corn commands 77a80 per bushel from store, and 70a75 per bushel on arrival.

BACON—Dealers report a moderate demand, and stocks are very light. Prices rule firm, with a decided upward tendency We note sales of 20 casks clear bacon sides at 16¼ per lb, packed, and 40 casks clear rib sides at 15¾, packed. We quote clear sides at 16 1-4a16 1-2, clear rib, packed. Hams are in good request, and stocks are fully up to the demand of customers. We note sales of 20 tierces sugar-cured at 18 1-2a19 for packed and canvased.

BULK MEATS—The demand is light, and stocks are reported ample. Prices rule firm and tend upward. We quote clear sides at 15a15 1-4, clear rib at 14 3-4a15, and shoulders at 10 1-2a11 3-4, packed.

LARD—Prices rule firm, but not quotably higher, and light transactions are reported within the range of our quotations. We note sales of 50 kegs prime leaf lard at 17 1-2 per pound. We quote tierce lard at 15 1-2a16 per lb., and keg at 17a17 1-2 per lb.

HAY—The complaint of dealers is daily increasing of their inability to supply the wants of customers. Though receipts are liberal the demand is increasing with such rapidity that the capacity of stocks is insufficient to supply the wants of customers. Prices rule firm but not quotably higher, and we note sales of 294 bales at 21 00 per ton for prime timothy delivered in cars.

MANUFACTURED TOBACCO.—The demand is daily increasing, and stocks are becoming of so little importance, compared with the demand, that dealers are almost compelled to acknowledge their inability to supply the wants of customers. Prices rule firm, and sales of the various grades of Virginia are made ranging from 63c for common pounds, and ¾ pounds to 1 15 for extra fig and pancake. Kentucky tobacco ranges from 62c for black sweet 10s and ⅛s to 72c for navy lbs and ⅛s, best.

LEAF TOBACCO—Dealers report receipts light, and the demand is moderate. Prices rule steady, and the sales at five of the auction houses amounted to 70 hhds.

Local and Business Notices.

WE notice that W. A. Lansdell is sole agent for Dow's "Ice Cream Soda Apparatus." He has now on hand a sample of their make, with all the modern improvements. As the hot months are approaching, it would be well to give this matter some attention.

He will shortly receive a magnificent apparatus, intended for his own use. This is a mammoth concern, combining beauty with strength, and coolness with splendid soda water—not forgetting the ice cream attachment, which is itself something new and extraordinary. None need complain of being hot the coming season.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb26-d&w6m

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S "VITALIA;" OR, Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of the country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE!

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials

which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have been CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF OF ITS REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER, IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY

The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine

that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healing action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

SUN AND RAIN.

A young wife stood at a lattice pane,
In a study sad and brown,
Watching the dreary, ceaseless rain,
Steadily pouring down—
Drip, drip, drip.
It kept on its tireless play;
And the poor little woman sighed "Ah, me!
What a wretched, weary day."

An eager hand at the door,
A step as of one in haste,
A kiss upon her lips once more,
An arm around her waist;
Throb, throb, throb,
Went her little heart, grateful and gay,
As she thought, with a smile, "Well, after all,
It isn't so dull a day."

Forgot was the plashing rain,
And the lowering skies above,
For the sombre room was lighted again
By the blessed sun of love;
Love, love, love!
Ran the little wife's murmured lay;
"Without it may threaten and frown if it will,
Within, what a glorious day."

LIFE, LOVE, AND YOU.

Let my voice ring out and over the earth,
Through all the grief and strife,
With a golden joy, in a silver mirth;
Thank God for Life!

Let my voice swell out through the great abyss,
To the azure dome above,
With a chord of faith in the harp of bliss;
Thank God for Love!

Let my voice thrill out beneath and above,
The whole world through;
Oh, my Love and Life! Oh, my Life and Love!
Thank God for You!

MADAME E. C. L. PARQUA.

Glowing Pen Picture of a Sable Rival of Anna Dickinson.

From the St. Louis Democrat, an admirer.]

Madame E. C. L. Parqua, who lectured last night at the Temple, was born on the Island of Hayti. Her father was a Carib Indian of Hayti, and her mother a negress of Madagascar. She therefore unites in herself the blood of two races and of two hemispheres. Her father was a sea captain, and commanded a vessel in the African trade. He saw a comely young negress at Madagascar, and, becoming smitten with her charms, took her home with him and made her his wife. A few days after giving birth to her first child she died. Mrs. Parqua's father was killed in one of the revolutions of the country, and the lecturer is the last of her family.

Mrs. Parqua is apparently about 25 years of age, a widow, and about the size of Miss Anna Dickinson. She somewhat resembles Miss Dickinson in the earnest vehemence of her manner, but the black sister has a more musical voice than the white one, and is more of a natural orator. In complexion, she resembles a "Cuba Six"—a dark olive, clouded in spots. She has a wealth of very black and glossy hair (not wool) which curls like the tendrils of a vine, and hangs over the back brain in a tangled, yet graceful mass, forming a huge natural waterfall. The high cheek bones and straight nose proclaim the Carib blood, while the large mouth and prominent teeth are derived from Africa.

The lady was arrayed in a fashionable robe of changeable silk of orange and green, which suited her complexion. The sleeves came a little below the elbow, and, being wide at the bottom, allowed the frilled under-sleeve to be seen. She wore a very large lace collar, fastened at the front with a yellow beau, and her waist was encircled by a yellow ribbon. Her feet were encased in thick-soled leather shoes, and her dress trailed behind after the style of Miss Anna Dickinson, but was not so stiff. A chemise with heavy frills at the bottom and a petticoat of red flannel were occasionally visible. Like Miss Dickinson, she spoke without notes, and used no desk or table. She wore white kid gloves, and spoke with a foreign accent on some words. Her enunciation was clear and distinct, and at times she became quite eloquent, when speaking of the wrongs of the black race.

The audience was quite meager, there being less than a hundred persons in the hall, and these were principally colored, with a small sprinkling of white ladies and three or four white men.

☞ The Maryland Legislature's Committee on Registration reported the registration bill, striking out the words "every white male citizen," and providing that every person shall be registered who possesses the qualifications under the Constitution.

It produces but one distinct shade, while others leave the hair in many varied colors.

It promotes growth when others fail to reproduce a single hair.

It does not crisp or dry the hair, but leaves it moist and glossy.

Ladies find it superior to any other as a Toilet Dressing.

The ingredients used in this Preparation are the very best that can be found, and are as harmless as water.

THE WILLINGHAM FERTILIZER FOR COTTON, CORN, WHEAT.

THIS STANDARD MANURE, named after a well known practical Planter of Georgia and South Carolina, combines in a concentrated form all the fertilizing elements necessary for the production of COTTON, CORN and WHEAT, and by its use is certain to increase not only the yield, but to improve the quality of the products. It is made with a special view to the wants of the soils of the South, and can be relied upon as to excellence of material, containing highly necessary substances, the great cost of which have heretofore precluded their being in common use. It can be depended on as uniform, always reliable, and productive of good crops.

ALBANY, GA., September, 1869.

Having a full knowledge of the composition and process of manufacture of the "Willingham Cotton, Corn, Wheat and Rice Fertilizer," I have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a most reliable fertilizer, one of the best in use, and most particularly adapted to the soil of Georgia and South Carolina. DOW LAW ECLIPSED,

In a Cotton Planter, Guano and Seed Drill combined.

MR. R. M. BROOKS, the inventor of the "Celebrated Premium Brooks Cotton Screw," has completed and patented,

A Cotton Planter Guano and Seed Drill

which, for general utility, durability, simplicity and cheapness, can not be excelled! It does its work more perfectly than any Machine of its character yet invented. It lays off the row, drops in the Guano in any desired quantity, and at one and the same time—depositing the Guano in the bottom of the furrow. In planting Cotton it is wonderful in its operations. It can be attached to any common plow stock; will save its cost in labor in using one day.

PRICES:

For one Machine complete, that will plant Cotton and put in Guano, attached to plow stock...
For one Machine as above, without plow-stock...
For one Machine for putting in Guano alone, without plow-stock...
For same for planting Cotton, without plow-stock...
For rights to manufacture one Machine...

☞ As the season is so near at hand for putting in Guano and planting Cotton, and finding inability to manufacture enough Machines complete to supply the increasing demand, we have concluded to sell rights to manufacture to individuals, as any one capable of handling tools can make them—the price for such rights being Three Dollars each; and would suggest that each neighborhood form clubs and buy one or more Machines, as models, and buy rights and make them themselves. One hand can make a couple any rainy day! These wanting Machines, will please send in their orders as soon as possible, as our capacity to manufacture is limited this season.

☞ State, County and Individual Rights for sale.

☞ $500 Reward will be given for information to convict any person making these Machines without a permit from us, and such person will be prosecuted to the extent of the Patent Law of the United States.

Machines and Rights for sale. Address: MARK W. JOHNSON, Dealer in Guano, Seeds and Implements, Broad Street, Atlanta.
